Mayor Pro Tem: Kackman

DEPARTMENT REPORTS:

Fire: Fire Fighter Tim Tingley reported they had another record breaking year for calls, this year ended with 1,224 calls.

COMMITTEE/BOARD/COMISSION REPORTS:

OTHER BUSINESS:

Mackleit asked the date for filing for office, there are 4 up for reelection this year.

Retzer stated May is the month to do that.

Kackman stated he will not be running for his seat again.

CITY ATTORNEY'S REPORT:

MAYORS REPORT:

The Legislation Session will be starting up next week. Golden will be attending AWC Days over there. Retzer will spend a couple of days advocating for the pool project. The Engineer Steve Nelson that was helping the city before on this has taken a position in Tennessee. Retzer will get in touch with the person taking his place and will see what we can work towards on grants for the pool project. Retzer will also advocate for the greenway project any chance he can get as well. Retzer asked the council to let him know if they have any ideas or suggestions they want spoken about for Colfax.

EXECUTIVE SESSION:

ADJOURNMENT:

Mayor Retzer adjourned the meeting at 7:08 p.m.

Jim Retzer, Mayor
